

Combination of microscopic and digital approach

Progress is unstoppable process. During last 10 years dentistry dramatically changed.

Intra oral scanners, face scanners, 3D printers, milling machines and other modern equipment completely changed our clinical workflows and co-operation with a lab.

In this presentation you will see step by step M.Vision digital workflow for esthetic makeovers in combination with using magnification to receive best results for patients.

Nazariy Mykhailiuk